Around Town: Upcoming Events in International Arbitration

Dear NYIAC Friends,

Today, let's talk about doomscrolling*.*
It enters the English vernacular in early 2020 during pandemic, describing the act of obsessively scrolling negative news. In an era of content overload, it's arguably hard to avoid it. From exploding pagers & walkie talkies in Beirut, threats to the rule of law in Mexico, attacks in Bamako, and the ongoing ravages of war in conflict zones as only some examples. Are you a doomscroller? Are we all inadvertently? Top doomscrolling hits on a quick search presented these titles, "Doomscrolling Dangers" [Harvard Health] and "How to Finally Stop Doomscrolling" [Cleveland Clinic]. Solutions to a world in conflict are to to continue in steadfast representation while making time for the relationships and hobbies that are invigorating. I hope many were able to reconnect at the IBA and look forward to greeting you in New York next week for a full dance card of events & cocktails. See you soon!

If NYIAC or I can be of service, don't hesitate to drop a line.

Warmly yours,
Rekha
